INTRO TO PLATFORM TENNIS SIGN-UP PROCESS

Residents will need to call or visit the center where intro to platform tennis is being held 6 days prior to the class to sign-up. For example, if the class is on Wednesday, residents would visit center on Thursday to sign-up for the following weeks class. Due to classes being held on different days, the registration date will be different. Residents will need to have their phone number and resident ID with them. They can sign themselves up and one other person. Must have the other person ID number.

Disclaimer

If classes are cancelled due to inclement weather or if resident calls to cancel out, the resident will need to sign-up for the following weeks class. The Recreation Department will not cancel intro to platform tennis until 30 minutes prior to class (8:30am). We ask residents to call the location of the class for cancellations.

Class Description

Introductory Lesson: Learn Safety, the Game; Rules, Fundamentals--including grip, forehand, backhand, service, lob, wire shots, beginning positioning.

Repeat Lesson: Review safety, review practice and strokes, positioning. Most of lesson is spent in practice games. Learners received real time coaching during play. Preparation for open play is provided.

Organized Beginner Play: No Sign-up is required. Organized Beginner Play is ideal for any individual who has completed the "Intro to Platform" Class. Members from the Platform Club will be present to "mentor" players on game play.
