

Village Community Development District No. 7
Referendum on general election ballot for incorporation

Chapters 190.047 and 165.061, Fl. Statutes state that when in a county of more than 50,000 population, a Community Development District achieves 5000 persons; the Board of Supervisors is required to ask that a referendum be held to determine whether or not the residents of that District wish to incorporate. As of September 3, 2008, the population for Village Community Development District No. 7 is 5,170. The following question will be placed on the general election ballot within Village Community Development District No. 7 for the general election, held November 4, 2008. That question will read:

“Do you favor incorporating the geographical area known as Village Community Development District No. 7 as a municipality?”
_____Yes _____No

This referendum for incorporation was previously done for Village Community Development Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6.
